Presidential Inaugural Committee Announces Participants for the “Parade Across America”

WASHINGTON — Today, the Presidential Inaugural Committee (PIC) announced participants in a virtual “Parade Across America” on January 20 at 3:15 PM ET that will feature diverse, dynamic performances in communities in all 56 states and territories, celebrate America’s heroes, and highlight the diversity, heritage, and resilience of the country.

Boy Scout Troop 358, one of America’s oldest African American scouting organizations has been selected to represent Pennsylvania. Troop 358 sponsored by the Grace Baptist Church of Germantown in Philadelphia, is making its third appearance in an inaugural parade. The troop was featured in the 2009 and 2013 inaugural parades for the former president of the United States of America, Barak Obama. The 358-Scouting Organization has mentored boys and young men in the Germantown community for seven consecutive decades.
