

Marilyn P. George has served as the Men’s Chorus director since 2004. As Grace returned to in-person worship, she also serves as pianist and singer with the Praise & Worship Team.

She is a HBCU graduate, earning a Bachelor of Music degree, with departmental honors, from Fisk University in 1974, with a major in flute and a minor in voice.

Marilyn earned a Master of Science degree in Arts Administration, with departmental honors, from Drexel University in 1995.

She began piano studies at the age of 8 and has served on the Music Ministry of Grace Baptist Church of Germantown for over 20 years, serving as director of the Chancel and Senior Choirs, co-director of the United Voices of Grace, and as guest accompanist for the Chancel Choir, under the directorship of Dr. Sara C. Blanford.

“It is an honor, privilege, and a blessing to serve God through the ministry of song at my home church, Grace Baptist Church of Germantown.”

He is the source of my strength; He is the strength of my life. I lift my hands in Total Praise to You. (Richard Smallwood)
