New Year, New Start

Carol Van Atta

Amazingly, it's that time. A new year is approaching right on schedule — again. This is the time of year so many of us start making resolutions to change a certain area, or multiple areas in our lives. Maybe we have some extra pounds to shed. We might be committed to changing a specific, harmful behavior. New Year's resolutions range from simple desires to seemingly full-proof-plans for extensive life change. What we all have in common is the hope that something will change, and life will be different (and better) in the year ahead.

Every year, people ring in the New Year with goals to live differently on some level. However, a few short weeks later, many of these very same well-wishers end up discouraged and filled with shame and remorse over their failed attempts to make their resolutions come to pass. Who knows? This may be the second, third, fourth, or 15th year someone has tried to “kick the habit.” After so many misguided attempts, why would they even want to try again?

That's a good question. First consider a few additional questions...

- What if every spring, the flowers just gave up on blooming?
- What if the local birds that have migrated to some faraway place just decided to stay put on that tropical island?
- What if the sun chose to hide behind the clouds all summer long?
- Worse yet: what if Christ had not come to earth as a baby or hadn't risen from the dead?

I don't know about you, but I love fragrant flowers, sweet singing birds are pretty nice, and, oh, how I love that summer sun smiling down on me! But the thought of Christ not defeating death is downright terrifying. Without his resurrection power, we really would have no hope for permanent life change — ever.

However, He was born. He died. And he most definitely did rise again.

That means this year, this month, today, or even this moment, is filled with hope for a better future — in him. We don't have to white-knuckle it anymore. Whatever your "it" might be, you too can turn from your sin, and release it into the capable hands of the ultimate Life-Changer.

When we desire change, we have the perfect example to follow: Jesus Christ. When we are ready to implement change, we have the perfect guide book: His Word. Finally, we have the perfect companion to strengthen our resolve: his Spirit.

As we pursue change God's way, hope for a better future is no longer a dream; it becomes our reality. We truly can experience freedom in our lives today, tomorrow, and forever. With Christ, we don't have to wait for another New Year to roll around, or for the big glittery ball to drop in Times Square. His mercy is new every morning. We can pursue our own new beginning right now.

FREEDOM is an acronym that will assist you as you start your new journey. For it is in our relationship with a loving, redeeming God, where we will find the freedom we so desperately yearn for.

Follow him forward:

"May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus..." (Romans 15:5).

We are to follow Christ. As we pursue him and seek to imitate his ways, we move forward in our process of change. No more slip-sliding backwards. When we truly follow Jesus, we are on the path that moves forward and upward, one prayer at a time.

Repent readily:

"But if they repent of their wicked lives, I will think twice and start over with them" (Jeremiah 18:9, MSG).

When we repent, God will start over with us. A new beginning... exactly what we are seeking. When we admit and repent of our shortcomings, and sinfulness, God is faithful to forgive and make us white like snow. Clean. Fresh. New. Don't wait another moment — repent.

Earnestly Pray:

"Pray at all times and on every occasion in the power of the Holy Spirit. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all Christians everywhere" (Ephesians 6:18, NLT).

Prayers are incredibly powerful. They are the foundation for any life change we desire. As we earnestly pray, we will find ourselves empowered by the one true source of power. There is no better time to pray than right now. Let us pray persistently, remaining alert, and consider our Christian brothers and sisters everywhere. After all, we are on this journey together.

Enjoy the journey:

"Then Hannah prayed: 'My heart rejoices in the Lord! Oh, how the Lord has blessed me! Now I have an answer for my enemies, as I delight in your deliverance'" (1 Samuel 2:1, NLT).

As we travel down the road of renewal, receiving answers from God along the way, we will have a number of reasons to rejoice. Many times we are so focused on the destination, that we forget to enjoy the journey. When we take a road trip, even though the driving might be daunting, dangerous, or just plain boring, if we take the time to truly see the unique beauty of the surrounding landscape, we may discover the journey can be enjoyed almost as much as the destination. Enjoy God's journey. He has planned a perfect path just for you.

Devour His Word:

"For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).

God's Word is the ultimate food for our thoughts, nourishment for our souls, and the map we must follow on our journey down the path of new beginnings. We know when our stomach growls, it is a signal for us to nourish our body with food. So it is when our spirit's "growl," we need to dive into God's truth and devour his Words like the sustaining substance they were created to be.

Open your heart and mind to his truth

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding" (Proverbs 3:5).

In order to grasp God's truth, we need to pray for an open heart and an open mind, in order to better receive the truth, know the truth, and obey the truth when we hear it. Be prepared to hear the Lord speak. He will.

Make new friends and move mountains:

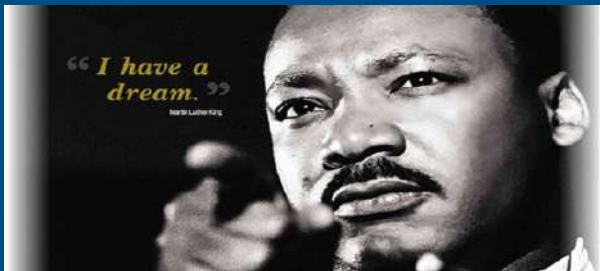

"Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you" (Colossians 3:12-13).

As we walk in godly love for one another, by forgiving, encouraging, and helping, we will find the strength to do what one person alone could never, ever accomplish. We need the Spirit's empowerment, and the encouragement we gain from each other. Together, we can move mountains! Often, our new beginning and long sought-after freedom rests just on the other side of the highest peak. But together, we can make it through the roughest terrain. We were never meant to "go it" alone. Jesus had 12 disciples. He knew the value of loving and supporting relationships. Let us learn from his example.

As we've discovered, change can be challenging, but this New Year, as we journey together down the road to freedom, let's stay focused on the One guiding us: Christ.

Happy New Year! And happy new beginnings!

Happy New Year!!!!!! Happy New Year!!!!!! Happy New Year!!!!!!

“Has thou not known? Has thou not heard that the everlasting God the Lord, creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is He weary? There is no searching to His understanding. He giveth power to the faint and to those who have no might He increaseth strength. Even the youth shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall fall with exhaustion; but they that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with sings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint”.

Greetings and Salutation to all:

In the words of the famous song written by The Winans back in 2007, “Millions Didn’t Make It, but You are One of the Ones who Did”. What a humbling feeling of thanks and humility to be able to open our eyes to a part of existence we have never seen before. It is my prayer and hope that you have experienced a magical and wonderful holiday celebration as we close out the year of 2023 and begin to focus on 2024. God has done marvelous things and so we give Him praise.

Grace, I want to let the cat out of the bag for a moment and to introduce to you briefly our motto/visions/mission for the year of 2024. The Holy Spirit is calling us to a “Vision of Victory”. You may be asking the question, “Well, what does that mean?” Good one, however you have to prepare yourself to come to the Church Vision meeting where you will hear, see and then be able to explain that which God is doing in this body of faith. I am so eagerly excited to “write the vision and make it plain,” as the scriptures have proclaimed .

We have a few celebratory moments coming our way. Minister Dr. Clifford Stanley and Min. John Jordan will be preparing for their ordination council. We ask your diligent prayers for these two men of God as “they mount up with wings like eagles” preparing to do the work of ministry. And then we will be having our Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., day celebration. Rev. Dr. Faust has put together a wonderful program and we certainly look forward to the Lord using her and the preacher. We are also not far from Black History month. Let’s look and see what God is doing in our congregation to see the “Vision of Victory” that God is working in our midst.

Grace, I ask your continued prayers as we start out in a new walk and I certainly want to encourage us all to be present and committed in our bible study teachings, Sunday morning discipleship teaching and “COMING SOON...” our membership drive.

Let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. Take care Grace and let’s get to work.

Pas Vobiscum,

Pastor Buck

As I look towards 2024, I can't let 2023 end without sending

From the keyboard of the editor

to all of those who worked so hard on the Christmas Eve Project. I'd like to begin with the hard working members of the Drama Ministry who came out each Friday evening to work on their lines, delivery, etc. We have a good time fellowshiping together. We are family and I love you all! Thank you Pastor and Jaida Buck...our newest members!

Then there is the Culinary Arts Ministry. They are just a remnant of what they once were, but God always uses His remnant in a mighty way! Diane Bates, Brenda Norman, Alan Bates, Julia Culver, Karla Chester-Kerr, Betty Conyers, Sandie Jordan-Gordon and new this year, Deacon Jace Jones (who stepped in to help the women lifting heavy pots) we could not have done it without you! An extra special shout out to Diane Bates who, from the day of shopping to the making sure that the kitchen is cleaned after the event, uses all of her energy and experience to make sure things are just as they should be.

Thanks also to our decorating team. From the Sanctuary to the Social Hall, these women (and Peter Custis) worked hard to beautify our space. Thank you Diane Bates, Burnestine Burrell, Gale Gray, Inez Henry, Sandie Jordan-Gordan, Brenda Norman, Gloria Reddick-Williams, and Diane Reddick-Satterwaite for using your creativity in His service.

Thank you to those who did research for children for the Angel Tree Project: Murine Lusakweno-Chandler and the Sickle Cell Organization, Karla Chester-Kerr and Marshall Street Elementary School, Paulette Reed and Rev. Carmen Watson.

To the Angel Tree distributors, Terry Henry, Michelle McDowell and the Deacon's Auxiliary, as well as those who filled wishes from the tree, thank you. Michelle adds n that the Angel Tree was very successful this year - 25 gifts were distributed to families between the Sickle Cell Anemia Families to the Under Privileged families they were very happy. One child was hospitalized, but received his gift. The Deacon's Auxiliary coordinated the project this year and will continue the tradition next year with Terry Henry as President.

Tobias Poole, I'm glad that the Eagles played on Christmas instead of Christmas Eve, so that you could help us with sound! Thank you.

In addition to all of those already mentioned, a special thank you to volunteers like Dawn Wilson, Camille Jones, Burnestine Burrell, Lillian Brown, Darlene Mintz, Darlene Miller and Michelle Taylor. We also thank our sexton, Carnell! And we can't forget our servers and clean up crew. I was working in the kitchen so I didn't see everybody. I did see Gina Chester-Jenkins, Lani Jenkins, Kris Chester, Betty Conyers and Alan Bates working at both serving and cleaning. Thank you to anyone else who worked these areas and whom I have not mentioned by name.

We have many ministries in Grace which remain dormant because no one seems willing to take the lead to reinvigorate them. Yes, we are an AGING Church (as are many of our sister churches), but we aren't DEAD! I'm not and I was told that God can use us, no matter what our age. So until He tells me otherwise, I'll be serving (not necessarily as a leader) but I'll be serving, however He leads.

Are you sitting on your talent? Can I invite you to use it in service? Drama Ministry is recruiting for our spring offering and I know those working with Culinary Arts will be happy to see new faces.

Let's make 2024 a year when we GROW our Ministry as we have been commissioned by our Savior to do.

By the way, Scholarship Applications and Scholar of the Year Applications can be found in the Scholarship Committee's mailbox in the first floor office. Janee Roberts is President. I believe they are due by January 20, 2024.

Happy New Year Grace!

Peace,

Sandi

Y'all?

Dear Grace Baptist Church of Germantown,

Recognizing and supporting caregivers is among the most significant overlooked challenges facing the US, their families, and society. It should come as no surprise today that many caregivers are our children and relatives. In our “It’s Time We Talk: First Friday” event, we will discuss who the care recipients and caregivers are, why the issue is important, tips on caregiving, male caregivers, care for persons with a life-limiting illness, palliative and hospice care, and self-care for caregivers (why and how).

Jerry Johnson, MD, Emeritus Professor of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, will be our moderator for “Its Time We Talk: First Friday.” He is nationally recognized for his expertise and leadership in aging, faculty development, and minority health care. Dr. Johnson has been a leader in aging and minority health issues for over 40 years. He is the former President of the American Geriatrics Society, former Chair of the Clinical Medicine Section of the Gerontological Society of America, and is currently Vice Chair of the Health in Aging Foundation, the public outreach arm of the American Geriatrics Society.

He served as Chief of Geriatric Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania from 2001 to 2018, leading the Division to prominence in clinical care, education, and research. Dr. Johnson is the author of over 200 publications related to aging and minority health issues and is an invited speaker on aging, minority health topics, and caregiving across the US and abroad. He is the past principal investigator of a Geriatric Workforce Enhancement Program (Health Resources and Services Administration) and has been a principal or co-investigator of multiple research projects to establish health equity, some of which I have worked alongside him as a liaison with the connectional AME Church. Dr. Johnson has been a practicing physician for over 40 years and is recognized by patients and peers for his combination of clinical excellence and compassion while caring for patients from acute care to nursing facility care.

Due to the significant challenges we face in caregiving support, a special request has been made to open this event to the public. Please join us for the “Aging with Care, Grace, and Dignity” discussion at “It’s Time We Talk: First Friday” on January 5, 2024, in the James B. Murray Fellowship Hall, 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm.

All Are Welcome To Attend This Session
There will be no registration for this event

In Faith,

Dr. Dianne Faust
Director of Community Engagement and Social Concerns

Dr. Faust will be on assignment as the Admissions Representative for the United Lutheran Seminary at the Samuel Dewitt Proctor Conference (SDPC) in Chicago on Feb. 19-22, 2024. One of the richest aspects of the SDPC is its desire to strengthen individuals, leaders, and activists in the church, academy, and community through education, advocacy, and activism. As a bonus, attendees will meet and greet with our very own Dr. Jeremiah Wright, Jr., co-founder of the Samuel Dewitt Proctor Conference. Please ask Dr. Faust about the details to register.

LET'S CELEBRATE
The Annual King Holiday Observance is a time that we celebrate, commemorate and honor the life, legacy and impact of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Global citizens will have unique opportunities to learn and unite in celebration of Dr. King's groundbreaking work and Mrs. Coretta Scott King's powerful continuation and formal institutionalization of that work through a variety of engaging events hosted by The King Center leading up to The King Holiday on January 15, 2024.

As we witness nations around the world continue to struggle under the weight of violence, hate and poverty, today's social, political and economic landscape reveals the urgent necessity of Dr. King's philosophy and methodology of Nonviolence (Nonviolence365™). The King Center leads the charge to provide education and training in Nonviolence365; while serving as the vital living memorial of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Our strategic theme for 2024 is 'Shifting the Cultural Climate through the Study and Practice of Kingian Nonviolence'. This theme defines the 2024 King Holiday Observance events and programming while serving as a compass for all the work we will do this upcoming calendar year and beyond. The pioneering work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. demonstrated that Kingian Nonviolence (Nonviolence365™) is the sustainable solution to injustice and violence in our world, ultimately leading to the creation of the Beloved Community, where injustice ceases and love prevails.

The King Center welcomes and invites you to join this movement for a new future as we strive to cultivate a Beloved Community Mindset, and ultimately transform unjust systems.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to empower people to create a just, humane, equitable and peaceful world by applying Dr. King's nonviolence philosophy and methodology (Nonviolence365).
