

Minister Carolyn M. Blackson

Minister Carolyn M. Blackson joined Grace Baptist Church of Germantown on November 10, 1989. She was licensed to preach the gospel, by the church, on Sunday, September 30, 2007 after preaching her initial sermon before the congregation.

She received a diploma in Biblical and Theological Studies from Palmer Theological Seminary in May of 2009. Minister Blackson received her Masters of Divinity Degree from Palmer Seminary at Eastern University in 2021.

Not only does she serve as an Associate Minister at Grace, she also teaches the Adult Sunday School class and serves as chair for the Health and Wellness Ministry.

Minister Blackson is ever mindful that she is not at Grace to be served but to serve the people of God.
