

Rev. Donald E. Graham, Jr.

Donald Graham Jr. was ordained to preach the gospel in 1997. Born in Brooklyn, New York, he is also an anointed singer and songwriter who has worked with the likes of James Fortune and Ernest Pugh. Donald holds an MBA in Business from Rosemont College, and a BA in Marketing from Peirce College. He is currently the Director of Business at The Salvation Army.

In 2024, he obtained his certification in Pastoral Counseling from Christian Bible Institute and Seminary. He is currently enrolled in a Doctoral Chaplaincy program at Impact Seminary. Donald is the author of three Amazon bestselling books; Navigating Your Seasons of Change, Loving Her Means Loving HIM, and The 4P's of Marriage (co-authored with his wife Precious). He is also the founder of Promise & Destiny Ministries, where he and his wife facilitate marriage workshops, seminars, and couples counseling.