

Rev. Dr. William Taylor III

Rev. Dr. William Taylor III was licensed to preach on January 30, 1998, at the Harold O. Davis Memorial Missionary Baptist Church/UCC, Philadelphia, PA under Bishop Kermit L. Newkirk Jr., Senior Pastor. Rev. Taylor was ordained an Elder by Higher Ground Christian Fellowship International in 2002 and in 2006 was ordained under the Covenant of the Council of Bishops and Pastors Freedom Worldwide, Apostle Devin Park Sr., Overseer.

Rev. Taylor founded Freedom Transformation Worship Center in December 2010, ministering to people struggling with addiction and homelessness.

Rev. Taylor earned a Bachelor Degree in Social Work from Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, an Associate Degree in Social Services/Mental Health from the Community College of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA, a Master Degree in Social Administration and a Post Master Certificate in Executive Social Administration from Temple University, Philadelphia, PA., and a Doctorate in Philosophy (Health and Human Services) from Columbia Pacific University.

Rev. Taylor serves as a Police Chaplain for the Cheltenham Township Police Department, is the President of the Cheltenham Branch of the NAACP, Co- Chair of the Montgomery Advisory Council for the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission and has served as Senior Legislative Assistant for PA District 154.

Rev. Taylor is joined in worship at Grace with his wife, Rev. Joyce Allen-Taylor and their daughter Joy.