

Rev. Brian Roy Wallace

Rev. Brian Roy Wallace was born and raised in Philadelphia and is a product of the School District of Philadelphia. Rev. Wallace earned his Bachelor of Science in Elementary and Kindergarten Education from the Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania in May 2001. Rev. Wallace attained his Master of Science in Educational Administration with a principal certificate from Gwynedd-Mercy College in May 2006 and his Superintendent Letter of Eligibility from Arcadia University in August 2021. He earned a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Arcadia University in 2025.

Rev. Wallace was licensed to preach the gospel in 2008 by the Grace Baptist Church of Germantown, where he serves as an Associate Minister. He graduated with a Master of Divinity from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia in Philadelphia, PA in 2015.

Rev. Wallace was employed as a teacher in the School District of Philadelphia from 2001-2009. He was Vice Principal of the Lawton Elementary School in the School District of Philadelphia from 2009-2012. He was appointed Principal of the Morton McMichael Elementary School from 2012-2019. He served as the principal of the Elkins Park Middle School in the Cheltenham School District from 2019-2022, and Meredith Elementary School from 2022-2024. He is currently the principal of Parkway Center City Middle College High School in the Philadelphia School District.

Rev. Wallace lives in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania with his wife, Sharice Cummings Wallace, and daughter Jasmine Reese Wallace. He is the son of Julia Wallace and the late LeRoy Wallace.